

Animals Prohibited Within State Facilities

Category: Finance and Management
Responsible Office: Finance and Management
Responsible Administrator: Finance and Management

Date Established:
Date Last Revised:
Date Posted: 3/2014

Summary

Policy

Animals are prohibited at Buffalo State, and within all State facilities. New York State Codes, Rules, and Regulations section 300-3.1 (k) states:

“No person shall introduce or possess any animal within a state facility except for service animals and police and fire dogs under the control of their handler, without authorization from the commissioner. No person shall abandon an animal on state property.”

Subdivisions (o) and (e) of section 300-1.2 state:

“(o) Service animal shall mean any guide dog, signal dog, or other animal individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability.

(e) Disability shall mean (i) a physical, mental, or medical impairment resulting from anatomical, physiological, genetic, or neurological conditions which prevents the exercise of a normal bodily function or is demonstrable by medically accepted clinical or laboratory diagnostic techniques; (ii) a record of such an impairment; or (iii) a condition regarded by others as such an impairment.”

Contact Information

Finance and Management
Cleveland Hall 505
Buffalo, NY 14222
Phone: (716) 878-4311
Website: www.buffalostate.edu/financeandmanagement/

Related Information

Revision History
